Administration and Faculty

Tyler Junior College

Chief policy makers for Tyler Junior College's progress are these nine TJC District Board members. Successful in their professions and businesses, they pool their decisions for the welfare of the campus and community.

President
Earl C. Andrews
Merchant

First Vice President
Harry Loftis
Attorney

Second Vice President
Jack W. Flock
Attorney

Board of Trustees

Dr. Eugene M. Allen
Dentist

A. D. Clark
Attorney

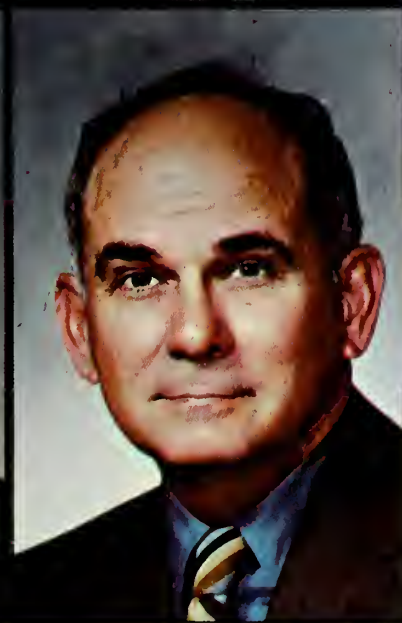

Ira Hildebrand

Dr. Jim M. Vaughn
Physician

B. D. White

The Aleck Genecov Science and Art Building to be completed in the school year of '74—is part of the physical evidence of the steady growth of TJC. Its 26 buildings have a spread of 76 acres on two campuses. Since its founding in 1926, the college has not missed a year in its 5 to 15 per cent increase in enrollment.

“Steady progressive change” probably best describes this community college serving persons of all ages and at various educational levels.

But the bulk of the more than 6,000 students are on their way toward academic degrees. A fast growing number want one or two-year professional training in a variety of technical fields. These technical fields include business training of various kinds, Dental Assisting, Dental Hygiene, Drafting, Electronics, Electronic Data Processing (computer), Law Enforcement Technology, Medical Laboratory Technology, Medical Records Technology, Mid-Management, Licensed Vocational Nursing, Petroleum Technology, Radiologic Technology, Respiratory Therapy Technology, Surveying, Technical Illustration, Air Conditioning Refrigeration, Sports Facility Technology.

The 12-month evening college curriculum includes academic and technical programs plus specialized non-credit courses. Public request for courses like Driver Training or Income Tax Reporting would bring these short courses into the day or evening program.

Basic courses for all academic degrees are in both day and evening schedules.

TJC offers 540 academic courses and between 450-500 technical courses. Said another way, this is almost 1,000 courses from which a student can choose. Since he can take only five courses per semester, he could be around for as long as he wishes.

And the fees for a year of study at TJC are less expensive than any college in East Texas. Total cost at TJC for two semesters—tuition and lab fees—is $124. This is $64 less than the least expensive junior colleges and $130 less than the most expensive.

More than 30 student-run Student Senate approved organizations are outlets from time away from study. The continual broadening of sports, the Apache Belles, Apache Band and TJC Publications are other diversifications.

TJC's purpose is to develop each individual. And it's a college by day and night, 12 months of each year.

Freshmen

More than 2,700 freshmen—TJC's record class—are beginning their careers in the widest variety of academic and technical majors the college has ever offered.

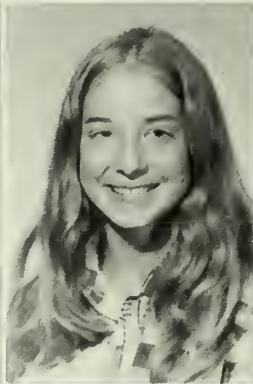

Individual freshmen who did not turn out for their pictures on the immediate pages following will probably show up elsewhere in the 272-page '74 yearbook.

Apache Head Coaches

FLOYD WAGSTAFF

Floyd Wagstaff's story is one of success.

His first claim to fame was as head football coach between 1947 and 1963 in which his teams won 130 and lost 36 games including Junior Rose Bowl win in 1948.

As a football coach, Wagstaff coached all three of the college's present coaches.

Wagstaff's greatest fame, however, has come as the Apache's basketball coach. The "dean of junior college basketball" prior to 1973-74 has won over 700 games, and have also gone to the national championship in Hutchinson, Kansas, 11 times, a single coach's record.

Wagstaff doubles as the college's Athletic director and this year became dean of health, athletics and physical education.

BILLY WAYNE ANDREWS

Since becoming Apache head football coach in 1969, Billy Wayne Andrews has compiled a 39-13-1 win-loss record.

Andrews, a former Apache football player, was nominated Texas Sports Writer's Junior College Coach of the Year his first year and was runner-up for the award in 1971.

Behind Andrews, the Tribe has notched two conference titles; 1969, with a 9-1 record, and 1971, with a 9-2 season.

Andrews, although hampered by injuries, was an outstanding running back while playing for the Apaches in the '50s under Floyd Wagstaff, now athletic director.

Andrews was voted Junior College All-American, All-Conference and All-Texas Junior College player before his graduation in 1953.

The Apache Football Team

The Apaches ended the season on a winning note, as they stopped the Kilgore Rangers 20-0 in the final game.

The defense played superbly—as they had all throughout the season—holding the Rangers to 11 first downs, 29 yards on the ground, and only 145 yards total.

Donald Forte also won a battle with the record book with his great performance in the Kilgore game. He gained 230 yards and ended the season with 1085 yards, the first runner to break 1000 yards for Coach Billy Wayne Andrews.

Left, Forte gets the first of his three TD's, this one on a four-yard run. He also had two other TD runs of 19 and 68 yards.

Far left, Larry Sims looks for a block as he leads a sweep against the Henderson County Cardinals. Miscues proved fatal to the upset-minded Apaches as the Birds notched a 20-14 victory.

Below, left, the Apache defense proves its reputation against Ranger. The Tribe slated a 38-0 win as its super defense held Ranger to -36 total yards, and its offense rolled up 396 total yards, despite losing Don Forte and Larry Sims through injury in the first quarter.

Upper and below right, sideline candids illustrate the enthusiasm of the Apache football team and its fans.

Apache players and Coach Billy Wayne Andrews display the "good luck" cake from Sans Souci pledges before the homecoming game with Kilgore.

Basketball Coaching Staff —

HEAD COACH FLOYD WAGSTAFF

The Dean of Athletics and Head Basketball Coach Floyd Wagstaff is one of the top junior college coaches in America. He has never known a losing season in his 27 years at TJC.

He has been named Coach of the Year by the Texas Sports Writers Association five times. The 10 coaches of the Texas Eastern Conference have named him Coach of the Year the past three seasons.

National Junior College Athletic Association officials have presented him with a Certificate of Service recognizing him as an outstanding national coach.

Many fine athletes come to TJC just to play for Wagstaff. They find his personality and winning reputation more attractive than the glamour of a major university. TJC-exe Steve Foster from Atlanta chose TJC over the University of Houston because Houston officials "told me to come to TJC first because it is the best Texas junior college to play in." He was also told that "Coach Wagstaff is the best coach in junior college basketball."

In this, the first year as dean of physical education, he has shown he is a winner in academic circles also.

ASSISTANT COACH RANDALL MILLSTEAD

Randall Millstead played his basketball at Stephen F. Austin University. When Floyd Wagstaff hired him as assistant basketball coach at TJC, he was the principal at Bullard High School.

Millstead, the only coach at TJC who did not play under Wagstaff, has lived up to Wagstaff's expectations.

"He (Millstead) is one of the better men in the business," says Wagstaff. "He knows what to do, he does everything plus. He is nice enough to get along with his players, mean enough to coach, demand and get respect from his boys."

f Wagstaff's Team

Though the baseball season had hardly begun when these pages went to press, Coach Frank Martin had a solid corps for '74.

For the first time in the last few years, the Apache baseball team also opened with a pre-season ranking in national polls. Their ranking of 16th nationally added spirit and spark.

Too, there was All-Conference returnees and one Honorable Mention. All-Conference were Bill Hanson of Lone Star at catcher and Chuck Lawrence of Mineral Wells at first base. Honorable Mention was Rick Prewitt of Austin.

Ultimate goal of the team was to win conference championship and a berth in post-season playoffs.

The Zetas and Pikes win together—they were awarded the first donor trophy at TJC this spring in the Shriner Blood Drive. They donated the “most blood in the East Texas Shrine Association Blood Drive.”

Work, Play Together

Pike President Jeff Wherry's comment was "It is great organizations to get together, not just as an individual up but as the whole college to help a worthy cause."

According to Wherry, giving blood means a lot more in seeing what organization could win a trophy.

"We were glad to help out," he said, speaking for as and Pikes.

Pi Kappa Alp

Pi Kappa Alpha and sister sorority Zeta Tau Alpha won the donor trophy in East Texas Shrine Association Blood Drive on campus. The Pikes also donated in a drive for the late Herman Shedd, father of Apache Belle Jan Shedd.

Pikes and Zetas sponsored the formal Valentine dance.

And the Pike colony expected approval as a national fraternity in the spring.

Sans Souci Sorority — Physical

Sans Souci is the second oldest sorority on campus. Its aims are to establish sisterhood for physical, intellectual, social and spiritual development for its members.

English Instructor Mrs. Naomie Byrum is Sans Souci sponsor.

Sans Souci works to better the community through service projects. Each year they sponsor a Thanksgiving Food for the Needy Can Drive, pass out candy-filled stockings to children in Medical Center Hospital at Christmas and play bingo with patients at East Texas Chest Hospital.

This year they donated clothes and toys to the Salvation Army and participated in a blood drive for burned children sponsored by East Texas Shrine Association.

Sans Souci participates in women's intramurals and along with their brother fraternity, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Sans Souci builds a homecoming float.

Drama, Campus and Civic Service

The Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity, Texas Theta Chapter, is a vigorous Greek letter organization dedicated to promoting campus spirit, giving the Tyler community and making life at TJC a more enjoyable social experience for its members. Taus worked in the Texas Rose Festival and gave blood to the Tyler Blood Center. They also have starred in TJC drama productions and several are standouts on the TJC baseball team. ATO Toni Langas starred in "A Flea in Her Ear" and played Jason in "Medea." Bill Hanson was All-Conference catcher in the North Texas Junior College Conference. Nick Prewitt was honorable mention pitcher on the All-Conference team. Other Taus on the team include Pitchers Terry Carter, Jerry Stripling and Outfielder Jack Bailey.
